Charity launch

With great joy we can announce the registration of Heavenfire Ministries as a Registered Charity!

Now in the sixth year of activities in south-east India, and two years after Rev Chris Wade dedicated himself full-time to this ministry, charitable status has been achieved.

Work began in 2000, spreading to villages and towns in Andhra Pradesh as well as the capital city Hyderabad, and has now moved up a gear.

Tsunami

According to Chris "The Boxing Day tsunami alerted a much greater proportion of the world to the vulnerability and needs of people living in the countries bordering the Indian Ocean. We feel we need to respond to the willingness of people to help". So did the tsunami generate much aid being channelled through Heavenfire? "Very much so! We were touched by the devotion of individuals and churches who joined with us to help. We gave out a lot of aid - food, household things, even beds - through their help."

Aid block

The media has commented on aid not getting through to some affected areas. Is this so in India? "Sadly, it is", Chris admits. "The remote villages that we go to have had no aid at all, other than what we ourselves were able to take or send. The need for western help is still desperate".

Heavenfire Ministries is a 'not-for-profit' company, and is registered by the Charity Commission. The charity aims to advance the Christian religion, education, and to relieve poverty, sickness, and distress.

- Stepping out in faith!
- Testimonies of healing!

A Step of Faith To India

Looking to the future of the new charity, and its work of taking mission teams to experience for themselves the blessings and hardships of India, Chris and Susan are taking a step of faith.

They have put their house up for sale, and while Chris moves to Hyderabad, Susan will remain in England. Initially for a 6 month period, Chris and Susan are looking for God's way forward for them and for Heavenfire Ministries.

Whilst in India Chris will explore the setting up of a branch office for the charity, and the duration of the stay will enable him to meet Indian Government requirements for the purchase of a suitable property to use as a base for ministry. Susan intends to come out to visit, and Chris does hope that he will get home for Christmas!

Seeking Heaven's Fire: now available by Chris Wade

Jesus Christ said "I have come to bring fire on the earth, and how I wish it were already kindled!". What difference does a kindled fire make to the life of a Christian? God is "a consuming fire". Becoming like him has to change our life and ministry, but how? In this Biblical revelation of the meaning and purpose of fire from heaven, the Holy Spirit encourages and empow-

HEALED: IN THEIR OWN WORDS

Lakshmi: Brother, when you and team visited the church at our village, many people gathered there. Then I attended to observe what is happening there. Slowly a mighty power of concentration entered me and I could able to listen little bit of message words by Bro Chris Wade from U.K. I wondered [about this] because I am purely deaf and dumb girl. By the grace of God now I could able to talk simple words.

Venkateswararao: I along with my wife have attended the meetings ... Sir I use to suffer from paralysis for the last 10 years. I have asked Brother Chris Wade to pray over me in that meetings. God miraculously healed me from that paralysis.
